About JEDEC Company Membership

JEDEC member companies are represented in standards development activities by over 3,000 dedicated volunteers participating in over 50 JEDEC committees. Members enjoy many benefits, including valuable access to pre-publication materials and proposals that put them ahead of the competition.

A range of affordable membership options is available depending on committee participation level, from $3,200 to $19,200 per calendar year.

New Member Discount

50% off the first year's dues for any membership level. Available for new member companies only.
